Virginia City to hold Fourth Annual Mad Hatter's Easter Parade and Great Virginia City Easter Egg Hunt

Virginia City, Nevada – (March 10, 2009) Virginia City holds its Fourth Annual Mad Hatter's Easter Parade and Great Virginia City Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 11, 2007.

The Great Virginia City Easter Egg Hunt will begin at 10 a.m. at Miner's Park, E and Carson Streets, Virginia City. Some eggs will be cooked and some will be plastic. The plastic eggs will contain either candy, or the name of a Virginia City Shop. Children should take their eggs with stickers to the stores to receive a free gift from that store. The Easter Bunny will also be on hand.

The Easter Egg Hunt is designed for children 10 and under. Small children will hunt for eggs in the baseball field, while bigger children will hunt in the park itself.

Prizes will be available for the children who find the most eggs in different age groups.

Easter baskets will be available for sale for $1 each, for those who forget to bring one!

The Mad Hatter's Easter Parade will begin at noon at the Virginia City Jerky Company, 204 South C Street and continue north to the Way it Was Museum. Line-up and registration will begin at 11 a.m. at the Jerky Company.

Cash prizes will be offered for the Best, Biggest and Most Bodacious Easter Bonnets, along with the Best Easter Float.

For more information, contact the visitor's center at 775-847-4FUN (4386) or go online to www.VisitVirginiaCityNV.com for parade applications and more information on this and other events happening in Virginia City Nevada.
